The Tent of Abraham:

The Power of Story to Encourage the Gifts of Hospitality

The annual Tent of Abraham program was initiated in 2006 as a way to celebrate the confluence of the Jewish, Christian, Muslim holy days at that time and continues as a way to build interfaith bridges.

The first mention of hospitality in the Bible is when Abraham welcomes the strangers at Mamre. As the father of three faith traditions, Abraham's gift for hospitality has influenced our cultures and traditions. Our Guest Tellers this year are Sandy Schuman (Jewish), Bill Royslance (Christian) and Dr. Mussarat Chaudhry (Muslim). Come share your own traditional or personal stories related to the theme or just come to listen. Either way, you will be warmly welcomed!
