The Power of Story to En-Courage Us

Sometimes we hesitate out of fear of the unknown

Guest tellers Marni Gillard and Nancy Marie Payne will offer tales about finding strength and courage to act after being en-couraged by another. They will help us see that stories themselves are a powerful form of encouragement. Let's encourage each other with our shared tales towards increasing generosity, activism, and simple connection in our world.

After receiving a Masters in Pastoral Studies from St. Bernard's, Marni Gillard has begun exploring tales of faith-filled people and Bible characters. www.marnigillard.com.

Storyteller Nancy Marie Payne has worked with the Interfaith Story Circle on many projects, including Children at the Well. She resides in Bern <http://nancymariepayne.blogspot.com>.

Come share your own traditional or personal stories related to the theme or just come to listen. Either way, you will be warmly welcomed!
