Stories of Our Fathers

As Father's Day approaches, we will share stories of our fathers and grandfathers, ancestral, legendary, and folkloric fathers – stories that may be happy or sad, uplifting or troubling, humorous or serious, stories that bring to mind more stories. Listen to our stories and, if you are inclined, share your own.

To launch our evening, our featured teller, Sandy Schuman, will share stories about his father. "My father was a storyteller," he says, "it was his everyday way of communicating important values and ideas. I didn't realize I took after him until ..." and then he launches into a story. Join us on June 12 to hear how Sandy found out he was a storyteller and shares "Stories of Our Fathers."

Storyteller, musician, and educator, Sandy Schuman tells stories about songs and songwriters, personal adventures, historical sagas, folk tales, and stories in the Jewish storytelling tradition.

Come share your stories related to the theme or just come to listen.
Either way, you will be warmly welcomed.
